

Giles Morrison

2002 (Middle Temple)

Giles primarily defends in the full spectrum of criminal cases with an emphasis on fraud, money laundering and drugs offences. He has significant experience in matters relating to the proceeds of crime. He has appeared as led junior and junior alone in a wide range of cases including murder, blackmail, false imprisonment, firearms, grievous bodily harm, serious fraud, drugs offences, and money laundering.

Giles also has experience of Coroners inquests, extradition law and has appeared in a large number of cases involving dangerous dogs.

Qualifications

LLB (Hons)

BVC (Inns of Court School of Law)

Professional Associations

Criminal Bar Association

Notable cases

- | | |
|---------|---|
| R v N | Unanimous acquittal in importation of 5kg heroin and 25kg cannabis |
| R v B | Instructed as junior to Nadine Radford QC in large-scale theft from employer case involving a particularly demanding client, the investigation of psychiatric issues, previous settlement in the High Court resulting in restrained assets. The case has attracted a large amount of publicity throughout the proceedings. Acted alone in two and a half day contested confiscation proceedings with overall benefit figure in the region of £2.5 million |
| R v O'G | Junior to Daniel Flahive in multi-handed conspiracy to defraud clearing banks of some £3 million. |
| R v H | Instructed as junior alone to represent a company director alleged to have continued to trade after insolvency proceedings had commenced |
| R v S | Instructed as junior alone in multi-handed conspiracy to defraud employers |
| R v A | Successful submission of no case to answer in a violent disorder trial involving 6 defendants |

- R v H Conditional discharge imposed as re-sentence for a breach of a Drug Treatment and Testing Order with ASRO requirement
- R v R Successful appeal against sentence to the Court of Appeal for possession with intent to supply heroin
- R v L Led Junior in conspiracy to kidnap, possession of firearms and false imprisonment. The matter was featured on BBC's Crimewatch UK. Suspended sentence imposed following acceptable limited basis of plea
- R v S 10 months detention and training order imposed for possession with intent to supply of heroin and crack cocaine