

Robert Ward

2007 (Lincoln's Inn)

Qualifications

LLB (Hons) Law - University of Leeds
LLM (Distinction) International Law- University of Glasgow
Bar Vocational Course - BPP School of Law

Areas of specialisation

Criminal Law

Experience

Robert undertakes a wide variety of defence work. Areas of specialisation include:

- Drugs offences: possession, possession with intent to supply, allowing premises to be used for supply of Class A drugs
- A wide variety of Violent and Public Order offences including violent disorder, affray, racially aggravated public order offences, ABH, assaults on police officers, domestic violence, harassment and the possession of offensive weapons
- Dishonesty offences, including burglary, robbery, theft, handling stolen goods, obtaining by deception, benefit fraud, conspiracy to defraud, trademark offences and offences relating to fraudulent identity documents
- Anti-Social Behavior orders
- Road Traffic Offences
- Proceeds of Crime Act Offences
- Animal cruelty

Other Relevant Experience

Prior to coming to the Bar, Robert worked as an immigration and asylum caseworker, giving legal advice as well as representing clients and conducting appeals in the Asylum and Immigration Tribunal. He is accredited as an Immigration Advisor by the Office of the Immigration Services Commissioner.

Robert also completed an internship at the United Nations Headquarters in New York where he worked in the Security Council division, recording and analysing debates and decisions of the Council and examining the interpretation of International Law.